

A Tale of Two Hearts: Help Unite a French-Filipino Love Story

Bonjour, Hello and Mabuhay!

We're a loving couple from two different parts of the world: beautiful France and the vibrant Philippines. As we embark on our journey of love and unity, we're reaching out to our friends, family, and kind-hearted strangers to help us turn our dream into reality.

For those who haven't had the pleasure of meeting us yet, my name is Frédéric from France, and I am thrilled to introduce you to my beloved fiancée, Miradel from the Philippines. Our love story is one that defies borders, time zones, and cultural differences, and now, we are ready to take the next big step in our relationship: our wedding.
