

A Tale of Two Hearts: Help Unite a French-Filipino Love Story

Bonjour, Hello and Mabuhay! We're a loving couple from two different parts of the world: beautiful France and the vibrant Philippines. As we embark on our journey of love and unity, we're reaching out to our friends, family, and kind-hearted strangers to help us turn our dream into reality. For those who haven't had the pleasure of meeting us yet, my name is Frédéric from France, and I am thrilled to introduce you to my beloved fiancée, Miradel from the Philippines. Our love story is one that defies borders, time zones, and cultural differences, and now, we are ready to take the next big step in our relationship: our wedding. The path of love never did run smooth, and our journey is no exception. Due to the geographical distance, preparing for our wedding has presented quite a financial challenge. The costs of traveling back and forth to the Philippines, coupled with wedding preparations, are significantly straining our resources. We've always believed that love is not just about two people, but about the community that surrounds them. This is why we're humbly reaching out for your support. Any amount you can contribute to our cause would be a monumental help in making our dream wedding possible. Your generous contribution will not only help us deal with the travel and wedding expenses but also give us a beautiful start to our shared life. We are eternally grateful for your support and promise to keep you updated on our love journey. Let's make our world a little
